Casting Director

JOB DESCRIPTION AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Casting Director in PortalOne will be responsible for the casting of guests for the Arcade Show.

You must have an outgoing personality and be great at establishing and building relationships with a wide variety of guests and their agents.

You will work closely with the showrunner to understand their requirements, suggest ideal candidates, and also set up meetings with potential guests.

You will be the main point of contact for the guests, making sure they are well prepared for the recording, accompanying them while they are in the studio for the recording of their episode and ensuring a good tone and good communication is maintained throughout their interaction with PortalOne.

Together with the guest and the studio team you will be responsible for facilitating the best possible promotion material for the show.

A significant part of this job is maintaining contact with the guests after they have recorded their episode, to plan and coordinate all promo activities in social media.

The job also will consist of talking to agents and managers, doing availability checks, and securing deal memos.
